

Call for Entries to the Aesthetica Annual Creative Works Competition 2009

Aesthetica is looking for entries to the 2009 International Aesthetica Creative Works Competition. The 2008 Competition was a successful springboard for artists' careers around the globe.

The winners and finalists from last year, went on to secure further exhibitions, commissions and publications. The winners and finalists were published in the Aesthetica Annual, which is available nationwide through British Borders Stores and internationally through the Aesthetica website. It's a great opportunity to bring your work to a wider audience.

Burgeoning Californian talent, Jacquelyn Noelle Unpinco, headlined the artwork category of last year's Creative Works Annual and received prize money of £500.

- The Aesthetica Creative Works Competition seeks entries of Artwork, Photography & Sculpture, Fiction and Poetry
- Three winners will be awarded £500 (approx $750 / €590) each
- Additional prizes include an Olympus E-420 SLR camera and a boutique holiday for two
- All finalists will be published in the Aesthetica Creative Works Annual, in stores December 2009
- Entry to the 2009 Aesthetica Creative Works Competition is £10 (approx $15 / €12)
- This allows you to submit up to 5 images, 5 poems or 2 short stories
- Closing date to receive Creative Works is 31 August 2009

For further details on the successes of artists and writers from the 2008 Aesthetica Creative Works Competition please click here

For competition guidelines and to enter the competition please click here

www.aestheticamagazine.com